New Delhi, the 17th June 1966

S.O. 1921.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Industrial Tribunal, Patna in respect of an industrial dispute between the management of the Bank of Behar Limited and their workmen which was received by the Central Government on the 6th June, 1966.

Before the Presiding Officer, Central Govt. Industrial Tribunal, Patna.

Reference No. 54/64

1/65

Bank of Behar Limited and their workmen.

AWARD

Dated the 31st May, 1966

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment, under S.O. No. 1664, dated the 7th May, 1964 has referred the industrial dispute between the employers in relation to the Bank of Behar Ltd., and their workmen to the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad. By another order dated 24th December, 1964 the same dispute was transferred by the Central Government to me for disposal. The dispute under reference is as follows:—

Whether having regard to the directions contained in the Award dated 21st July, 1962 of the National Industrial Tribunal (Bank Dispute) Bombay published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour and Employment No. S.O. 2603, dated 7th August 1962, the management of Bank of Behar Limited, Patna was justified in granting bonus to their workmen for the year 1962 at the rate of 70 per cent of their one month's basic salary as drawn on 31st December 1962? If not, to what quantum of bonus are the workmen entitled?

2. After the date for hearing had been fixed, the parties took several adjournments for settling the dispute amicably and ultimately they succeeded in doing so. A joint petition signed by Shri R. N. Prasad, General Secretary, Bank of Bihar Employees Association and the Secretary of Bank of Bihar along with a memorandum of settlement was filed before me on 10th March, 1966. The other representatives of the workmen filed petitions on 6th May, 1966 accepting the memorandum of settlement. The relevant terms of the settlement relating to bonus for 1962 along with bonus for the years 1956 to 1961 are as follows:—

- (1) Arrear Bonus Claims for the Years 1956—62.—The total bonus disbursement already made by the bank for the years 1956—62 both years inclusive, amount to Rs. 5,40,000/- approximately. The Bank now agreed to pay, by way of settlement of the claims for arrears bonus for the above noted years, on an ad-hoc basis, a total sum of Rs. 1,25,000/- which will work out roughly @23% of the bonus received by each and all employees, on bank's roll during the relevant years.
- (2) The All India Bank Employees Association accepts the above noted payment in full and final settlement of all bonus claims for the said years. The A.I.B.E.A. further agrees to withdraw the bonus claim for the year 1962 pending before the Central Government Tribunal at Patna in respect of the reference No. 1/65.
- (3) The bank agrees to disburse the additional Bonus on or before 25th of April 1966, after making necessary reference to the Reserve Bank of India.
- (4) Proportionate additional Bonus on prorata basis will be paid to those Employees who might have retired or resigned or in case of any eligible employees has died, to his legal heirs within a period of one year from the date on his or his successors making a written application to the Management.

(5) It is further agreed that these payments are on an ad-hoc basis and will not be treated as precedent to govern Bonus payment in any future year."

3. The terms are fair and reasonable. I accept the settlement and give my award in terms thereof.

INDUSTRY: Banking.

STATE: Maharashtra.

AWARD

1. This is a complaint, purporting to be made under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the Act), filed by Shri M. Padmanabha Prabhu, who is an employee in the Fort Branch at Bombay of the Canara Banking Corporation, the Opposite Party herein, and is directed against an order dated 4th May, 1965, made by the opposite party transferring the applicant to Mangalore. It is alleged that the order was made, during the pendency of an industrial dispute between the opposite party and its workmen being Ref. CGIT. 84 of 1964 before this Tribunal in which the applicant is a workman concerned and that as an approval of the Tribunal was not obtained for the said transfer, which was mala fide, there has been a breach of Sec. 33 of the Act and this complaint is maintainable.

2. This application was filed on 28th April, 1966, almost a year after the said order of transfer was made on 4th May, 1965. The opposite party in its written statement has contended that this application is not maintainable on two main grounds:—

- (i) that the industrial dispute in Ref: CGIT, 84 of 1964 was not pending on the date the order of transfer dated 4th May, 1965, was made; the dispute having been settled by the parties to the dispute by an agreement of settlement dated 23rd February, 1966 reached during conciliation under Section 12, sub-para 3 of the Act.
- (ii) that the applicant herein has filed a suit in the City Civil Court at Bombay being S.C. Suit No. 3749, of 1965 challenging the said order of transfer, which is still pending before that Court. The Bank has, therefore, urged that this application is not maintainable as the same issue is covered in the pending Civil Suit and should be dismissed.

3. In order to appreciate the contentions urged, it is necessary to state certain relevant and admitted fact.

4. The industrial dispute, Reference No. CGIT, 84 of 1964—which was referred to this Tribunal by Government Order of Reference dated 5th September, 1964, related to a claim for Bonus for the year 1962 and the particular question referred for adjudication was, "whether the Bonus already paid by the Bank for that year (1962) was inadequate, and if so, to what relief the workmen are entitled". It is admitted that industrial disputes with regard to payment of Bonus for several earlier years from 1956, and for the two subsequent years, 1963 and 1964, were also pending and the same were taken up for conciliation before the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) Hyderabad. It appears that on 23rd February, 1966, a settlement was reached in the conciliation proceedings by which the Bank agreed to pay additional Bonus for the 4 years, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962, particulars of which are stated in the said memorandum of settlement. Paras 6 and 7 of the settlement 'interalia' provided as follows:—

Para 6.—"This settlement, however, shall be final and binding on both the parties as regards the amount of Bonus payable for the year 1956 to 1964. The qualifications for eligibility and the procedure as set out herein above".

Para 7.—"The Federation/Association hereby undertakes that as between the Employee's Association, South Kanara/South Central Banking Corpn. Employee's Union and their Constituent Units—to file an application before the Central Government Industrial Tribunal for withdrawal of the dispute relating to the Bonus for the year 1962 within 15 days from the date of the settlement".

5 Thereupon, an application was received by this Tribunal on 5th March, 1966 praying that an award be made in terms of the said settlement in respect of dispute Ref. No. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964. Thereupon, I made an award dated 19th March, 1966 in Para No. 4 of which I stated as follows:—

"I, therefore dispose of this dispute which relates to the demand with regard to Bonus for the year 1962 in terms relating thereto in terms of Annexure 'A' hereto and allow the same to be withdrawn as settled".

I may state that Annexure 'A' was a copy of the memorandum of the settlement dated 23rd February, 1966, reached between the parties, to which I have referred earlier. From the above, it is clear that the industrial dispute under Ref. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964 was settled by the parties on 23rd February, 1966 in the conciliation proceedings held under section 12(3) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. This settlement was reached between the management of the Canara Banking Corporation Ltd., and the workmen of that bank, who were represented by two Federations and their constituent Unions including the Union which represents this workman in the present proceedings. I am of the opinion that the dispute having been settled on 23rd February, 1966 and the parties having agreed to withdraw the proceedings of the industrial dispute pending before me which related to the payment of Bonus for 1962, the industrial dispute in Ref: No. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964 did not survive thereafter. I had, therefore, in fact, ceased to have any jurisdiction over this dispute after 23rd February, 1966 because the parties had by express terms of the settlement not only settled the dispute for Bonus for 1962 but had agreed to make an application for the withdrawal of that dispute. In my opinion, therefore, the Industrial Dispute under Ref. No. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964 came to an end on 23rd February, 1966 when the settlement came into operation under section 19(1) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947, and I ceased to have jurisdiction over that dispute. My Award dated 19th March, 1966, published in the Gazette of India Part II, Section 3(ii), dated 16th April, 1964 pages 1110 to 1112, cannot be deemed to have extended the pendency to the Industrial dispute which had been settled. By that award I accepted the settlement and the parties application to withdraw the dispute in terms of the settlement. I had, therefore, ceased to have jurisdiction over that industrial dispute after it was settled on 23rd February, 1966 and I had, therefore, no jurisdiction left in me to entertain this complaint which was filed on 28th April, 1966, almost one year after the order of transfer was made. In fact, the industrial dispute having been settled, there could be no pendency of the dispute. There has thus been no breach of Sec. 33 of the Act by the Bank and this complaint is not maintainable. It appears to me that this was also clear to the applicant because, as I shall presently show, he sought relief against the Bank's transfer order dated 4th May, 1965, by filing on 12th July, 1965, a civil suit in the City Civil Court, to which I shall presently refer in some detail. I, therefore, uphold the first objection of the Opposite Party against the maintainability of this agreement.

6. I shall now deal with the second objection urged by the opposite party against the maintainability of this application. By the Bank's letter dated 4th May, 1965, the applicant was transferred from Bombay to work in the Administrative Office of the Bank at Mangalore, and a relieving order was served on the applicant along with the transfer order by which the applicant was relieved from attending to his normal duties to enable him to report for duty at Mangalore. Thereupon, the applicant addressed a petition to the Administrative Officer of the Bank at Mangalore in which, inter alia, he stated that in view of the fact that his wife was in an advanced stage of pregnancy, his transfer order may not be pursued. It appears that according to the applicant, the staff at the Bombay Office of the Bank also made a representation to the Manager at Bombay requesting him not to give effect to the transfer order which has been served upon the applicant. Later, the applicant received a letter dated 19th May, 1965, from the Administrative Officer at Mangalore which, according to the applicant, showed that his transfer to Mangalore had been effected as a measure of punishment imposed upon him. The management denies this allegation. In its letter dated 19th May, 1965, the management refuted certain allegations which the applicant had made in his letter of 8th May, 1965. He was, however, granted time till 15th June, 1965 to report for duty at the Bangalore Branch. According to the Bank, instead of reporting at Mangalore, the applicant submitted three medical certificates dated 1st May, 1965, 12th June, 1965 and 12th July, 1965 and on the last date (12th July, 1965) filed a civil suit, being S.C. suit No. 3749, of 1965, in the Bombay City Civil Court and obtained an ad interim injunction restraining the opposite party, among other things, from transferring the applicant from his post in Bombay to any other place pending the hearing and finalising the notice of motion, in obedience to which the applicant was permitted by the Bank to rejoin duty at their Fort Branch, Bombay on and from 13th July, 1965. Later, directions were given in the above suit on 19th January, 1966, and among other directions, the suit was transferred to the list of Long Causes of the Bombay City Civil Court at Bombay on 12th April, 1966. His Honour Judge Shri Desai was pleased to dismiss the applicant's Notice of Motion with costs. He was, however, pleased to order that the ad interim injunction granted on 12th July, 1965, should continue to be effective upto 16th May, 1966, to enable the applicant to take necessary legal steps. Thereafter, the applicant filed this application on 28th April, 1966 on which date I issued a notice on the Bank asking it to show cause on 3rd May, 1966 why an order should not be passed granting an interim stay till the disposal of the application on the merits, as prayed for by the applicant, and at the hearing thereof on 3rd May, 1966, I granted an interim stay as prayed, till 30th May, 1966 and adjourned the hearing to 23rd May, 1966 when on the application of the applicant for time because he desired to be represented by the President of his Union, I adjourned the hearing to 26th May, 1966, on which date, the submissions of the parties on the preliminary objections of the Bank as stated above, were heard.

7. It is clear from what I have stated above, and it is also admitted that the applicant's suit in the City Civil Court is still pending. The suit admittedly has not been withdrawn by the applicant, though, there are observations in the order of the Learned Judge of the City Civil Court in his said order dated 12th April, 1966 that in his opinion, the civil suit filed by the applicant was not maintainable, though that order was passed on 12th April, 1966, the applicant has not withdrawn the pending civil suit No. 3749, of 1965, but during its pendency has sought virtually the same reliefs from this Tribunal in the same matter of the Bank's Transfer order dated 4th May, 1965.

8. Shri P. Madhava Rao appearing for the opposite party, has argued that this application was not maintainable because, the applicant's suit in the City Civil Court was still pending and has not been withdrawn. He stated that to entertain this application during the pendency of the civil suit filed by the applicant in the Bombay City Civil Court would amount to encouraging multifarious legal proceedings. I am inclined to accept this contention. It is clear that the applicant has not withdrawn his civil suit filed by him in the City Civil Court and in my opinion, to entertain during the pendency of the proceedings of that suit, this application would be encourage multifariousness of legal proceedings and dilatory legal tactics. The order of transfer was made on 4th May, 1965 when admittedly, the industrial dispute Ref. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964 was pending before this Tribunal. Yet the applicant did not file this application against the alleged punishment by way of transfer till as late as on 28th April, 1966 during which period he was prosecuting the civil suit which he filed in the City Civil Court. Though there is no time limit specified for a complaint under section 33A, it must nevertheless be filed at the earliest. In my opinion, by filing this application almost a year after the date of the order of transfer dated the 4th May, 1965, the applicant has not acted bonafidely or with diligence. Even now, he has not given up prosecuting the proceedings in the civil suit which he has filed in the City Civil Court. On the basis of this, to entertain this application which has been filed almost one year after the order of transfer and more than one month after the industrial dispute in Ref. No. C.G.I.T. 84 of 1964 had been settled, would be to put a premium on multifarious legal proceedings and encourage unjustified delay, which conduct cannot be considered to be bonafide, I, therefore, also uphold the second objection of the bank and hold that this application is not maintainable.

9. In the result, the stay order till 30th May, 1966, made in this application on 28th April, 1966 is vacated. In fact I made that order at the hearing on 30th May, 1966. The application is dismissed as not maintainable.

10. No order as to costs.
